

New structure of the BTEC Nationals in Hospitality Supervision

The BTEC National Diploma in Hospitality Supervision is an 18-unit qualification.

BTEC National Diploma in Hospitality Supervision structure

BTEC National Diploma Structure
	Core units – all five units must be taken
1	The Hospitality Industry #
2	Health, Safety and Security
3	Work-based Experience
4	Team Leadership and Supervision
5	Applied Costings for Hospitality
	Specialist units – choose thirteen units from Groups A and B (including at least three from Group A plus Unit 13)
	Group A – choose at least three units
6	European Cuisine
7	Food and Beverage Service Operations
8	Accommodation Operations
9	Front of House Operations
	Group B (must include Unit 13)
10	Food and Beverage Service Organisation
11	Kitchen Organisation and Food Safety
12	Vegetarian Cuisine
13	Customer Care in Hospitality #
14	Personal Selling and Promotional Skills
15	Selecting and Controlling Resources
16	Marketing for Hospitality Operations
17	E-commerce for the Hospitality Industry
18	Human Resources
19	Indian Cuisine
20	Chinese Cuisine
21	Thai Cuisine
22	Themed Event Planning
23	Hospitality Small Business Start-up
24	Conference and Banqueting Operations
25	Quality in Hospitality
26	Services Provision
27	The Reflective Practitioner
28	Diet and Nutrition

NB: # denotes a unit assessed via an Integrated Vocational Assignment