Dear Colleague

Erratum notification – Edexcel Level 2 NVQ in Road Passenger Transport

Please note that there is an error in the published Edexcel Level 2 NVQ in Road Passenger Transport Guidance to Centres (publications code N015671) and Candidate Guidance and Logbook (N015673) regarding the structure of the qualification.

Candidates do not need to achieve both units in Option Units – Group D for successful completion of the NVQ. These are in fact additional units which may be studied in order to enhance skills and competence but do not form part of the requirement for the qualification.

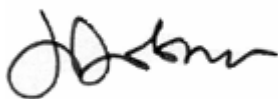

Please would you replace the incorrect pages of the above publications with the amended pages as enclosed:

- Guidance to Centres (N015671) – page 16
- Candidate Guidance and Logbook (N015673) – page 35.

We are in the process of updating the above documents and will have these on the website in the near future.

I apologise for any inconvenience caused to you and your candidates.

Yours sincerely
